

Mechatronics Engineering Technology Certificate (C40350) Program Guide

Program Notes: Credit for prior learning may be available for some courses.

Program Options: Mechatronics offers an associate degree (A40350), diploma (D40350), and certificate (C40350).

Financial Aid Eligibility: No (Must be enrolled in associate degree or diploma for eligibility).

| Course #                | Course Name                 | Credit Hrs. | Term Offered | Term Completed | Grade |
|-------------------------|-----------------------------|-------------|--------------|----------------|-------|
| Fall Semester    |                             |             |              |                |       |
| ATR 112                 | Intro. To Automation Intro. | 3           | F            |                |       |
| ELC 213                 | Instrumentation             | 4           | F            |                |       |
| ISC 112                 | Industrial Safety           | 2           | F            |                |       |
| Semester Totals: |                             | 9           |              |                |       |
| Spring Semester  |                             |             |              |                |       |
| MEC 130                 | Mechanisms                  | 3           | S            |                |       |
| HYD 110                 | Hydraulics                  | 3           | S            |                |       |
| Semester Totals: |                             | 6           |              |                |       |
| Program Totals:  |                             | 15          |              |                |       |